- I'm from Athens, Greece, and I travel around the islands all the time staying at luxury resorts.
- Some of my favorite spots in Crete are Stella Island Resort and ACRO Suites.
- Sani is the best family-friendly resort, and Euphoria Retreat in Mystras is great for relaxing.

Traveling in Greece is always an adventure — even for a local like me.

Delta Air Lines recently ranked my hometown of Athens on its list of most-searched destinations for this summer, so I know plenty of other visitors are set to hit the islands in a few months. And if you're looking for luxury, I've found some of the best resorts in the country.

Here are my favorite luxury hotels in Greece, from Athens to Mykonos.

Euphoria Retreat, Mystras

Located in the ancient city of Mystras (a UNESCO-protected area), Euphoria Retreat is a holistic luxury resort that bridges modern and traditional touches.

The pool and spa area are a modern, immersive, multisensory experience. Everything is so beautiful, I wish I could stay here forever.

The resort offers various outdoor activities and retreat programs based on traditional Chinese medicine and Greek techniques designed to help people reconnect with their bodies.
